A remote Nordic island brimming with legendary volcanoes, glacier-cut fjords, rainbow-laden waterfalls and geysers may sound like the makings of Viking folklore, yet in Iceland's "Land of Fire and Ice," these fantastical, otherworldly scenes are as real as the blue-green auras that dance across the Arctic sky. Experience the natural beauty of this sparsely populated part of the world during an amazing 9-day, 8-night journey specially timed for the optimal viewing of the aurora borealis, otherwise known as the Northern Lights. From cosmopolitan Reykjavík to the harbor town of Siglufjörður and beyond, discover life in this egalitarian nation known for its small population, high standard of living and penchant for books, humor and fresh air. Explore the UNESCO World Heritage site of Þingvellir, where the North American and Eurasian tectonic plates meet, and where the nation's first open-air assembly was established in 930, lasting until 1798. As your itinerary unfolds, learn about Viking settlers, the herring industry and geothermal energy practices — all while enjoying guided evening excursions where we'll look to the heavens for a light show like no other.

that serves as an ode to modernism and Iceland’s unique landscape. Enjoy lunch on your own before checking into the Hótel Borg, a newly renovated boutique hotel located just steps from the National Cathedral and the Icelandic Parliament. Join your fellow passengers for a Welcome Reception in the hotel this evening, followed by dinner on your own at one of Reykjavík’s many restaurants.

(also known as The Pearl) — a museum with a rotating glass dome and 360° views.

After lunch, walk back through time at the National Museum of Iceland where you can trace the nation’s history from the Settlement Age, then stroll the old neighborhood where you’ll find time-worn lanes adorned with colorful historic houses and charming shops.

Tonight, enjoy your first guided excursion in search of the Northern Lights.

Day 4 | February 3 B-L

Reykjavík | Golden Circle

Embark on Iceland’s iconic Golden Circle tour and discover the nation’s “Big Three,” beginning with the scenic lava plains at Pingvellir National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage site just 30 minutes outside of the city. Continue on to the spectacular “golden waterfall” at Gullfoss Falls.

From there, head to the geothermal region for a tour and lunch at Fridheimar

Greenhouse & Stables, a family-run geothermal tomato and horse farm. During your tour you will learn more about Icelandic horses and their extraordinary history.

Catch the Strokkur geyser in action as it sprays a fountain of water and steam high into the air. On the road back to Reykjavík, learn how Icelanders make the most of geothermal forces during a short visit to Hellisheidi Power Plant.

Day 5 | February 4 B-L

Reykjavík | Siglufjörður

Enjoy a scenic drive to Siglufjörður, the northernmost town on Iceland's mainland, located 28 miles from the Arctic Circle. This picturesque area, tucked between rugged mountains at the tip of the Tröllaskagi peninsula, is the herring fishing capital of the North Atlantic. Stop for an authentic local lunch, then check into the Hótel Siglo. This afternoon, travel to Hauganes, a small fishing village on the western coast of Eyjafjörður bay. This idyllic region is known for its stunning coastal scenery, whale watching and warm geothermal waters. Visit the family-run Baccalá Bar and enjoy a tasting of the renowned salted codfish.

Day 6 | February 5 B-L

Siglufjörður | Goðafoss | Mývatn | Namaskarð | Dimmuborgir

Visit Goðafoss, the “waterfall of the gods,” where the wooden idols of Norse mythology were cast into the rushing waters as Icelanders voted to adopt Christianity. Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant and marvel at the breathtaking scenery of Lake Mývatn and the tiny craters of Skutustadur. See Namaskarð's gurgling sulfur cauldrons and the “dark castle” lava formation of Dimmuborgir. As night falls, prepare for an outing in search of the aurora borealis.

Day 7 | February 6 B-L

Siglufjörður | Akureyri

Step into Siglufjörður's past as a tiny fishing hub at the Herring Era Museum, featuring a restored salt house and factory. Depart for Akureyri, Iceland's “Capital of the North.” After lunch at a local eatery, and visit the Forest Lagoon,

Pingvellir National Park, Iceland

Siglufjörður, the northernmost town of mainland Iceland

As we journey back to Reykjavík, admire the unique and striking landscapes. Savor a hearty lunch at the family-run Hraunsnef farmhouse restaurant, which offers an authentic Icelandic farm-to-table experience as part of your day-long excursion.
