A World of Discovery

AHI Connects | Italian Coffee & Café Culture. At one of the city's oldest cafés, delve into the social rituals behind Italy's passion for coffee and learn how favorite choices are prepared and served.

Florence Walk. Explore the glorious Cradle of the Renaissance with your guide. Admire the Cathedral of Santa Maria del Fiore and take in the intricate façade, distinctive dome and striking bell tower designed by Giotto. View the bronze doors of the octagonal Baptistery that Michelangelo called the Gates of Paradise. Traverse the Arno River by way of the charming Ponte Vecchio, and linger in the Piazza della Signoria, the city's political heart since the 14th century. The stately Palazzo Vecchio, the Fountain of Neptune and graceful statues within an open-air loggia add to the historic beauty of this picturesque square.

San Gimignano & Chianti. Chianti is a dreamy vision of quiet back roads, lovely hillside towns, woodlands and, of course, vineyards. Travel to San Gimignano, a hill town that boasts 14 medieval tower-houses and wonderfully preserved squares, palaces and fountains. After your tour, a local chef will show you how to cook like Tuscans do, then you get to enjoy the mouthwatering results for lunch! Later, visit Castello di Monsanto, built in 1750. Taste wines produced from handpicked Sangiovese and Canaiolo grapes and other varieties.

Accademia Visit. With a private guide, tour this internationally renowned museum that houses Michelangelo's incomparable statue of David, paintings and sculptures by legendary artists and an exquisite collection of rare, antique musical instruments including pieces crafted by Antonio Stradivari and Bartolomeo Cristofori.

Uffizi Gallery. Follow the evolution of Italian art from the 13th century through the 16th century in the Uffizi's grand halls, which contain some of the world's most acclaimed masterpieces.

Colle di Val d'Elsa & Siena. In the Elsa River valley, meander on Colle's small lanes and delight in its noble houses and medieval tower houses. After lunch in the area, journey to Siena, remarkably unchanged since the Middle Ages, that shines with gorgeous Gothic gems like its dramatic, striped cathedral, which you will visit. Step into one of Europe's finest piazzas, the shell-shaped Piazza del Campo, and learn about its importance to the city. Pause by the Gaia, or Joyful, fountain to see its pretty, bas-relief sculptures. (Active)
