

Lisbon to Casablanca & Andalusia

April 26 – May 5, 2026

Retrace monumental trade routes across two continents and four countries on an eight-night cruise from Lisbon, Portugal, to Casablanca, Morocco, aboard the exclusively chartered World Voyager. Visit spectacular cities along and near the Iberian Peninsula and the northeast African coast — Portimão and Lagos, Portugal; Seville and Málaga, Spain; Gibraltar, United Kingdom; and Tangier, Casablanca and Rabat, Morocco. Discover the Royal Alcázar of Seville and explore the bustling maritime city of Lagos. Stand on the legendary Rock of Gibraltar, referred to by ancient Greeks and Romans as the Pillars of Hercules; step inside St. Michael's Cave and laugh at curious Barbary macaques. While all these destinations share a legendary devotion to hospitality, each is markedly unique and will add incredible depth to your travel mosaic.

Exclusive Highlights

- Cruise from the Iberian Peninsula to Africa on a thrilling 8-night cruise.
- Enjoy exclusive excursions to the Hassan II Mosque and the Mohammed V Mausoleum.
- Experience 4 UNESCO World Heritage sites: the Royal Alcázar and Cathedral, Seville; the Alhambra Palace in Granada; and historic Rabat.
- Stroll through Tangier's legendary, vibrant souks.

TEXAS EXES®

— FLYING LONGHORNS —

Dear Texas Ex:

Join us on this 10-day, transcontinental journey that features the rarely offered combination of Portugal's breathtaking Algarve coast, Spain's Andalusia region, the fabled British territory of Gibraltar and Morocco. On an eight-night cruise aboard the deluxe World Voyager, enjoy finely curated days filled with natural vistas, spectacular architecture, UNESCO-listed World Heritage sites and outstanding cuisine.

Call at lively cities with enriching excursions at every port. Be both historian and pleasure-seeker as you take in sun-drenched coastlines, summit the Rock of Gibraltar, stroll through the Generalife Gardens, and uncover the complex histories and cultures of these destinations. Witness some of the world's most celebrated citadels, churches and mosques, reflections of each region's cultural tapestry. The adventure concludes in the Moroccan cities of Casablanca, Tangier and Rabat, steeped in old traditions.

This outstanding itinerary is brought to you by the Texas Exes travel program, which supports the association's mission of promoting and protecting The University of Texas at Austin and uniting its alumni around the world. While you do not have to be an alumnus of UT to travel with us, we do ask that all Flying Longhorns travelers have an active membership in the Texas Exes. Memberships start at just $50.

The association is a huge proponent of continuing education and there is no better classroom than our world. Experience rich history and culture in the company of your fellow Longhorns! Are you ready for the adventure of a lifetime? We're standing by to answer all of your questions and take your reservation. Group size is limited on this popular program and likely to sell out quickly. Additional information about all Texas Exes Flying Longhorns trips can be found at travel.texasexes.org.

Best regards,

Your Flying Longhorns Travel Team,
Margaret, Janice, and Alysha

Day 1 | April 26

Depart your home city for an overnight flight to Lisbon, Portugal.

Day 2 | April 27 D

Lisbon, Portugal | Embark Ship
Upon arrival, embark the deluxe World Voyager.

Say hello to fellow travelers over dinner aboard the ship.

Day 3 | April 28 B-L-R-D

Portimão | Lagos
Enjoy a morning of cruising before arriving in Portimão. Following lunch, head out on a guided tour of Lagos, a delightful coastal town. See the statue of Infante Dom Henrique — a monument to Prince Henry the Navigator — and the Church of San Antonio, a fine example of baroque architecture. Witness the historical Mercado de Escravos building, the site of Europe’s first slave market. Meet and mingle at tonight’s Captain’s Welcome Reception.

Day 4 | April 29 B-L-D

Day at Sea | Cruise the Guadalquivir River
Spend a relaxing day cruising at sea and on the river as the ship glides along the Algarve coast to the Guadalquivir River for Seville, Spain.

Day 5 | April 30 B-L-D

Seville, Spain
After breakfast, disembark for an excursion in this culturally rich Andalusian city. Stroll through the iconic Plaza de España, with its grand semi-circular design and colorful ceramic tiles. See Seville’s highlights, including the magnificent UNESCO World Heritage-listed Cathedral de Sevilla, home to Christopher Columbus’ tomb, and the UNESCO World Heritage-inscribed Alcázar of Seville, a stunning palace featuring intricate Mudéjar designs and lush gardens. Return to the ship for lunch or remain in town to explore this remarkable Andalusian capital on your own.

Day 6 | May 1 B-L-D

Gibraltar, United Kingdom
After lunch on the ship, venture off to visit the Rock of Gibraltar, considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be one of the two Pillars of Hercules that marked the boundary of the known world. You can walk up a steep road to stand on the “Top of the Rock” — a nearly 1,400-foot-high limestone promontory — and enjoy expansive views across the strait separating Europe and Africa. From there, witness the impressive stalagmites and stalactites in St. Michael’s Cave and watch the amusing antics of Barbary macaques, Europe’s only colony of wild monkeys. The tour concludes at the Great Siege Tunnels, excavated by British Army engineers in the late 18th century to provide defense for the colony.

St. Michael's Cave, Gibraltar, UK

Day 7 | May 2

Málaga, Spain | Granada

Arrive in Málaga, birthplace of Pablo Picasso, and board a coach for a panoramic drive to Granada and the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Alhambra. While exploring this ancient citadel, learn about the significant Nasrid legacy of the site and walk through the tranquil Generalife gardens, lauded for their plant life, fountains and reflecting pools.

Day 8 | May 3

Tangier, Morocco

The ancient port city of Tangier has welcomed artists, writers and adventurers over the centuries. Set off to explore the labyrinthine old medina and legendary souks. Hear captivating stories as you marvel at local wares and see weavers and artisans creating their crafts. Visit Niaba Gardens, a vibrant green space with bountiful floral displays, towering palm and cypress trees, fountains and views of the city and the Mediterranean Sea.

Savor regional cuisine over lunch at a local restaurant.

Make the most of leisure time after lunch. Head back to the souks to peruse, shop and immerse yourself in Tangier’s daily life and culture.

Join fellow passengers for a Captain’s Farewell Reception.

Cathedral of Seville, Spain

Rock of Gibraltar, United Kingdom

Day 9 | May 4

Casablanca | Rabat

Arrive in Casablanca, a cosmopolitan city that blends North African and French culture. Visit the impressive Hassan II Mosque, situated on a promontory overlooking the ocean.

Admire its intricate marble flooring and Moroccan details. One of the largest mosques in Africa, it is one of only two open to non-Muslim visitors.

Upon arrival in Rabat, enjoy lunch at an authentic local restaurant, followed by a panoramic tour. Gaze at the Royal Palace of Rabat — fronted by expansive grounds and the Parliament of Morocco — and the Chellah, a former Roman settlement and the royal necropolis of the 14th-century Marinid dynasty. Admire the undulating lines of the newly built opera house, Grand Theater, designed by the late architect Dame Zaha Hadid. Continue your tour on foot to visit the stately Mohammed V Mausoleum, which contains the tombs of King Mohammed V and his sons. From there, walk to the Hassan Tower, a lavish vestige of an unfinished 12th-century mosque.

Casablanca, Morocco

Return to the ship and enjoy your final dinner on board.

Day 10 | May 5

Casablanca | Disembark | Return to Home City

Following breakfast, disembark and transfer to the airport for your return flight home.

Note: This itinerary is subject to change due to local conditions.

Cultural Crossroads

Nothing evokes mystery and intrigue like Morocco, a multicultural nation rich in royal tradition, delectable food and exquisite architectural treasures. Located directly across the Strait of Gibraltar from Spain, it is the land of colorful souks and lively medinas, mighty mosques and grand palaces, golden dunes and warm hospitality. Our journey, which began on the Iberian Peninsula and crossed to Spain's Andalusian coast, concludes with time in chic Casablanca and the UNESCO-designated Moroccan capital city of Rabat. Trace the rise and fall of ancient empires that conquered cities in this region, weaving a vibrant mosaic of art, religion and culture. This confluence and collaboration also ushered in advances in math, science, medicine, horticulture and philosophy — sparking the catalyst for global trade at the crossroads of Africa and Europe that would ultimately change the world.
