Dear Texas Exes,

Aloha! Imagine a place where emerald mountains meet the sea, waterfalls tumble through lush valleys, and vibrant traditions bring each island to life. Hawaii offers a rare blend of natural beauty and rich culture—an unforgettable escape that feels both timeless and inspiring.

On this carefully curated journey, experience the best of three unique islands, each with its own story to tell. Begin with three nights in Honolulu, including a city tour and a moving visit to Pearl Harbor’s USS Arizona Memorial. Continue to the Big Island for two nights, where you’ll explore Volcanoes National Park, witness dramatic volcanic landscapes, and visit the historic village of Kailua Kona.

Your adventure concludes with three nights on Maui, home to cascading waterfalls, the striking Iao Needle, and the summit of Haleakala National Park. Along the way, enjoy a traditional Hawaiian luau—an evening of local cuisine, music, and dance.

Blending guided exploration with time to relax, this journey showcases the very best of Hawaii. With roundtrip airfare included, we invite you to join us for an unforgettable island experience.

This program is offered by the Texas Exes Flying Longhorns travel program, which supports the association’s mission of promoting and protecting The University of Texas at Austin and uniting its alumni around the world. While you do not have to be an alumnus of UT to travel with us, we do ask our Flying Longhorns have an active Texas Exes membership. Membership starts at $50. For more information or to reserve your space, please contact us at 800-594-3900 or travel@texasexes.org.
